CITY TRADE REPORT.

THURSDAY, May 8—6 P. M.

BREADSTUFFS.—There was a fair home trade, and a moderate shipping demand, for Western and State Flour to-day; but the market for nearly all descriptions was easier, owing partly to the unfavorable foreign advices and the large amount offering. The sales of domestic reached 4,500 bbls. superfine, No. 2 at $3.62 a $3.75; ordinary, to straight State, at $4 a $4 12; mixed to good Western, at $4 18 a $4 37\foxuperfine, No. 3 at $3.62 a $3.75; ordinary, to straight State, at $4 a $4 12; mixed to good Western, at $4 18 a $4 37\foxuperfine, No. 8 ales transpired. Southern was scarce, and not active. 750 bbls. mixed to straight brands, sold at $4 75 a $4 $7\foxuperfine, No. 8 ales transpired. Southern was scarce, and not active. 750 bbls. mixed to straight brands, sold at $4 75 a $4 $7\foxuperfine, No. 8 ales transpired. Southern was scarce, and $5 3.00. Meal has not varied. *17\foxuperfine, at $3 44 a $4 57\foxuperfine, No. 8 ales include 1,200 bushels prime Genesee, at $1 15; and 12000 Canadian, for shipment, at 97c. a $102. Rep was very heavy, at 73c; 2,500 bushels sold at that rate. Barley continued scarce, and, nominally the same. Outs moved to a fair extent, at 46c. a 48c. for Northern, and 45c. a 46c. for Jersey. Corn was lower, and unsettled. The steamer's news affected the market unfavorably. The day's business was restricted to 18,000 bushels Western mixed, at 60c., and prime Northern Northern, and 45c. a 46c. for Jersey. Corn was lower, and unsettled. The steamer's news affected the market unfavorably. The day's business was restricted to 18,000 bushels Western mixed, at 60c., and prime Northern Yellow, at 62c.

Corrox.—The Europa's news being worse than was looked for at this period, our market has been brought to a complete stand to-day. Seliers offer their supplies at a half cent decline, which buyers, as yet, are unwilling to enter at. The sales made were insufficient to establish prices.

Trevisions.—Pork was very quiet to-day, without quo table change in rates. In retail lots, about 300 bbls. wer yeld, at $15.75 for new mess; $14.75 for old; $14 for new prime; and $12.75 a $13 for old. Beef was also inactive, but firm. 100 bbls. new mess fetched $9.25 a $11 50; and prime. $5.25 a $6.50. Tierce beef was dull. Of beef hums 50 bbls. brought $15.50. Pickled were in request, with sales of 120 pkgs, hams, at $15c. a $4.5c. and shoulders at 63/c. a 7c. Lard was dull, but steady. About 150 bbls. were taken at 9%c. a 103/c. Butter and cheese were selecable, at uniform rates.

THE GREAT EXHIBITION IN NEW YORK.

I'll tail you about an exhibition
In which there's never an internission;
It is an act of assassination,
Now going on throughout the nation;
Insects, orecping, jumping, typing,
Are falling sick, and suddenly dying;
Lyon's powder dows the business,
Raking them off with a service of a disciness;
Bugs it alids, but nothing human—

DR. KELLINGER, DEAR SIR:—MY HAIR CONTInues firm and thick; I had none when I commenced using the finite. Mr. E. Dickson, as Hudson, when you have attended to, had no hair from his seventeenth to his fortysecond year. I knew him well. His, as well as my own case, will astonish any one who will make an examination. Yours truly, W. M. Gardiner, No. 22 Second street, Williamsburgh, I. J. Another wonderful reference—Mr. John Clarke, of Hastings, W-astebester Co., had no hair for fifteen years. I saw Mr. C. It is indeed a most wonderful growth. There were more than twenty on firmed cases of hair rectored in the village of Yonkers. Yours, sincerely, James Miller, I sam well known to ex-Alderman R.P. Gettys, the Hon. Aarout Varke, of Yonkers, Westchester Co. Mr. G. W. Walling, of the Chief's of Police office, has a fine, soft, thick, curley head of hair—had none when he begin using the fuil. No idle assertions here. Dr. K. has cases of from twenty-fire to thirty years baldness restored, which no other remedy ever has done. The doctor will forfeit Silvo, if he fails to prive that he has. Sold, so all can reach it, fram la to 8s, each.
